An Event Truly Dedicated to Economy, Trade, Investment & Tourism Development & Growth

A unique platform for interaction between Russian and foreign investors, experts, representatives of government and business, including companies operating in the field of Islamic finance.

The business agenda included such key topics as exports, development of trade and economic relations, investments and entrepreneurship, Islamic finance and the Halal industry, medical industry and tourism. During these 3 days plenary discussion panels and round tables with the participation of Russian and international investors and experts had held.

The success of the event was due to the quality of the presentations and the enthusiastic spirit of exchanging ideas with like-minded professionals from around the world.

“The Samara region was the first region in Russia to host this international business forum.”

Dmitry Azarov

RUSSIA
Governor of the Samara region

“Russia may become one of the leading countries in terms of exporting halal products”

Mohamed Jinna

Development Tourism and Environmental Affairs
South Africa

I am pleased to provide this message of support for World Halal Day & Volga Investment Summit which brought together national and international stakeholders from the halal industry to share their knowledge, wisdom and experiences. I would like to commend the organizers for their remarkable efforts in providing such a great platform for networking and exploring the huge Halal market.

İhsan ÖVÜT

Secretary General
SMIIC
Turkey

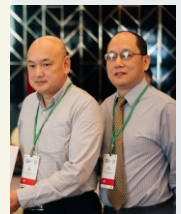

World Halal Day 2019 Samara was a great hub for connecting halal society in the world. I was so glad to attend this event following Seoul in 2018. Halal is not for just food and cosmetics, it is being widened to medicals and tourisms too. For this event, I hope Halal business is much bigger then before. I have gained a lot of valuable relationships from this event, and I hope this precious relationship will lead to fruitful results. I would like to thank all of you and many others. Thank you so much.

Sung-ho HAN

CEO
AdipoLABs Co., Ltd.
South Korea

We are very happy to be invited by Mr. Han to attend your event. We would like to express our great gratitude to be able to attend such wonderful and well-organized event. We both had a wonderful experience and learn a lot from it. We hope to attend next year event in South Africa again.

Gary Chen / John Chen

CEO / Int'l Marketing Director
Xi'an Zunze ShengXian Semiconductor

We are united by common goals: the development of the economy, the creation of conditions for attracting investment, for cooperation in business between states and different peoples of the world. I am sure that the forum with its rich program will satisfy the needs of each participant. Representatives of organizations from around the world today will be able to present their projects, business and find partners. We are pleased to present investment projects that are being implemented and prepared for implementation in the Samara region. I'm sure they will arouse interest.

Mohamed Naser Abdulla HamdanAlzaabi
Director of Trade Promotion Department,
Ministry of Economy
UAE

Volga Investment Summit & World Halal Day is one of the key events in the business world in Russia in 2019. It is already obvious that they have become the next step in building bridges between the business community of Russia and the countries of the Middle East. We are glad to have the opportunity to do such a great business side by side with reliable partners.

The organizers did an excellent job & ensured that the entire event was managed professionally, diligently, with much aplomb & with precise attention to detail. For all of us the event was a learning curve & gives us a first-hand exposure of what to expect from South Africa next year. The event was well organized & well-rehearsed with a full press contingent covering the different aspects of the event.

Faizal Suleman

Executive Director

Exhibitors' Impressions

Exhibitors from KwaZulu-Natal (KZN) province was part of the exhibition to Samara. They basically wanted to test the environment for future business opportunities, and they are hoping to be part of the World Halal Day celebrations going forward in Durban and other parts of the world. The exhibitors from KZN had made significant contacts and currently in talks with some of them. Overall they happy to do business in Russia and Samara if the opportunity arises again.

Halal Street Food Festival Fair of Flavors

Russian businessmen also did not miss the opportunity to show themselves to the world. Halal-based entrepreneurs exhibited at the trade fair that accompanied Volga Investment Summit and World Halal Day. Therefore, a place was prepared both for the halal fair and the gastronomic festival "Fair of Flavors".

The highlight of the show was the culinary show "Battle of Pilaf" – an open competition in which the cooks of national cuisine of the Samara region will take part. Dishes was evaluated not only the jury of the competition, but also the guests. And on the main avenue they will make the longest in the Volga region, a 20-meter shawarma, which then everyone can try.

Experts from 21 countries took part in Volga Investment Summit & World Halal Day

The forum focused on the changes in the global economy and the strategy of international investors in the new geopolitical realities.

From October 3 to 5, 2019, Samara hosted major international events - Volga Investment Summit & World Halal Day, bringing together hundreds of experts and speakers from the Persian Gulf, Southeast Asia and Africa, the European Union.

The forum focused on the issues of changing the global economy and the strategy of international investors in the new geopolitical realities. At the central panel discussion, "The Global Economy on a Growth Path: Challenges and Solutions", participants discussed the possibilities of cross-cultural interaction and the prospects for cooperation between Russia and the countries of the Middle East and Southeast Asia.

The central place in the business agenda of events was taken by the issue of the contribution of the Samara region to the development of international partnerships. The leaders of the region and speakers from different countries discussed the development strategy and ways to increase the investment attractiveness of the region.

"For several years in a row in the Samara region, consistent and focused work has been carried out to create the most comfortable regional investment environment. Samara is becoming a unique platform for starting and running a business, as well as for entering international markets and entering into partnerships with colleagues from abroad. The past Volga Investment Summit & World Halal Day proved the interest in Russian products from the global community and helped local entrepreneurs gain access to global expertise," said Viktor Kudryashov, First Vice Governor and Chairman of the Government of the Samara Region.
